2009-2010 Student Resident Core Application

Call & Criteria

We call Florida State University students either presently enrolled or who anticipate being enrolled to apply for admission to PUC's student resident core community. While active members of Presbyterian Church U.S.A. congregations are preferred applicants, we welcome others from all Christian traditions. Apart from enjoying an exceptional housing environment at reduced rates, residents accept ministry-related responsibilities and agree to live, learn, serve and lead together as a Christian community. See our Resident Handbook for details, expectations, terms and conditions. Inquiries welcomed.

Qualified resident core program candidates meet these criteria:

- Demonstrated faith in God through Jesus Christ
- Active Roll of a local congregation
- Regular worship attendance
- Service in congregational life, mission, and ministry
- Articulate a personal vision of leadership and Christian community
- Provide a cogent explanation for joining Westminster House's Student Resident Core
- Service in the church at-large
- Demonstrated community service
- Involvement in organizations or associations related to particular interests, aspirations, or skills
- Leadership in an organization or association of interest

Contact the Reverend Dr. Bruce A. Chapman, University Minister, at the address above for information or clarification.

Complete applications must be received at the Presbyterian University Center by 5:00 p.m. Monday, March 30, 2009. A complete application includes responses to all sections below, including the essay. Late submittals disqualify candidacy.
